

KENDELL

John Katter
President/CEO

In course with the objective to be the market leader in providing Solutions for Opening and Specialty Applications, KENDELL is proud to announce the acquisition of Glewwe Doors, Inc.

Founded in 1966, Glewwe Doors, Inc. has built a reputation of customer relationships based on trust and performance. They are a market leader in fabrication, customer service and professional customer consultation for the door, frame and commercial hardware industry. The Glewwe Doors, Inc. leadership and team bring with it decades of industry experience and expertise, including skilled fabrication and installation teams, professional project management and Architectural Hardware Consultants (AHC). We are excited to welcome them to KENDELL.

KENDELL will build on the strengths of the newly combined organization to further provide targeted client focus and premier project management and client performance. For nearly 50 years, KENDELL has offered targeted services and quality solutions to the commercial construction market. We are proud to offer client-focused solutions for:

- Frame, Door and Commercial Hardware
- Specialty Applications
- Retrofit Services and Masterkey Systems
- Access Control System Support
- Field Installation and Pre-Installed Projects
- Sustainability
- Door Opening Consulting, including BIM coordination

Customer engagement for the new organization has already begun and operational acquisition will execute effective November 1, 2016.

Please help welcome the Glewwe Doors, Inc. team to KENDELL. We look forward to the opportunities this new alignment will bring!

Regards,
